following actions:

Confirm that Google can find and crawl your site.

Fix indexing problems and request re-indexing of new or updated content.

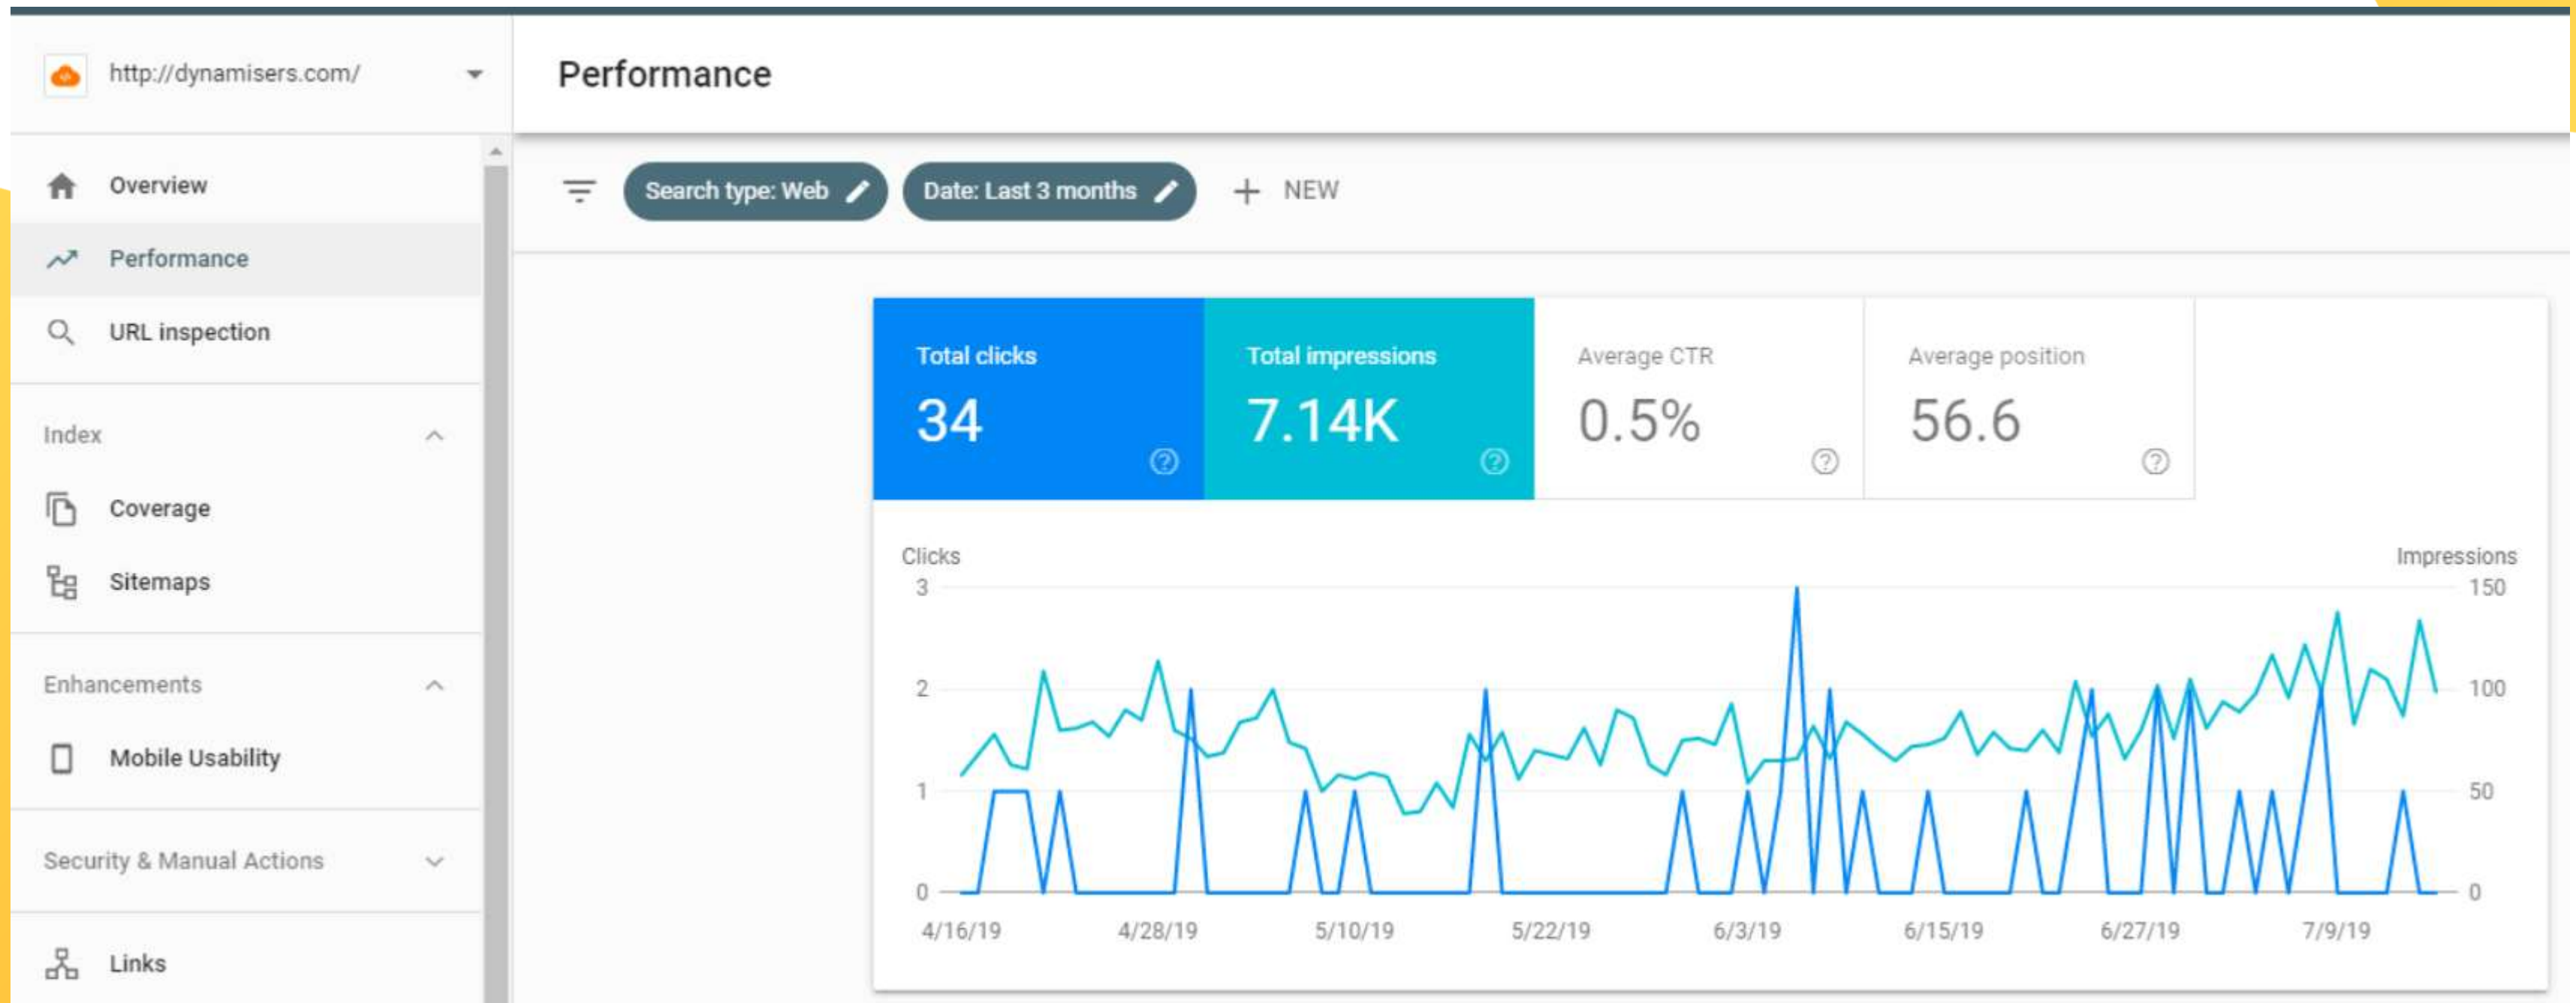

View Google Search traffic data for your site: how often your site appears in Google Search, which search queries show your site

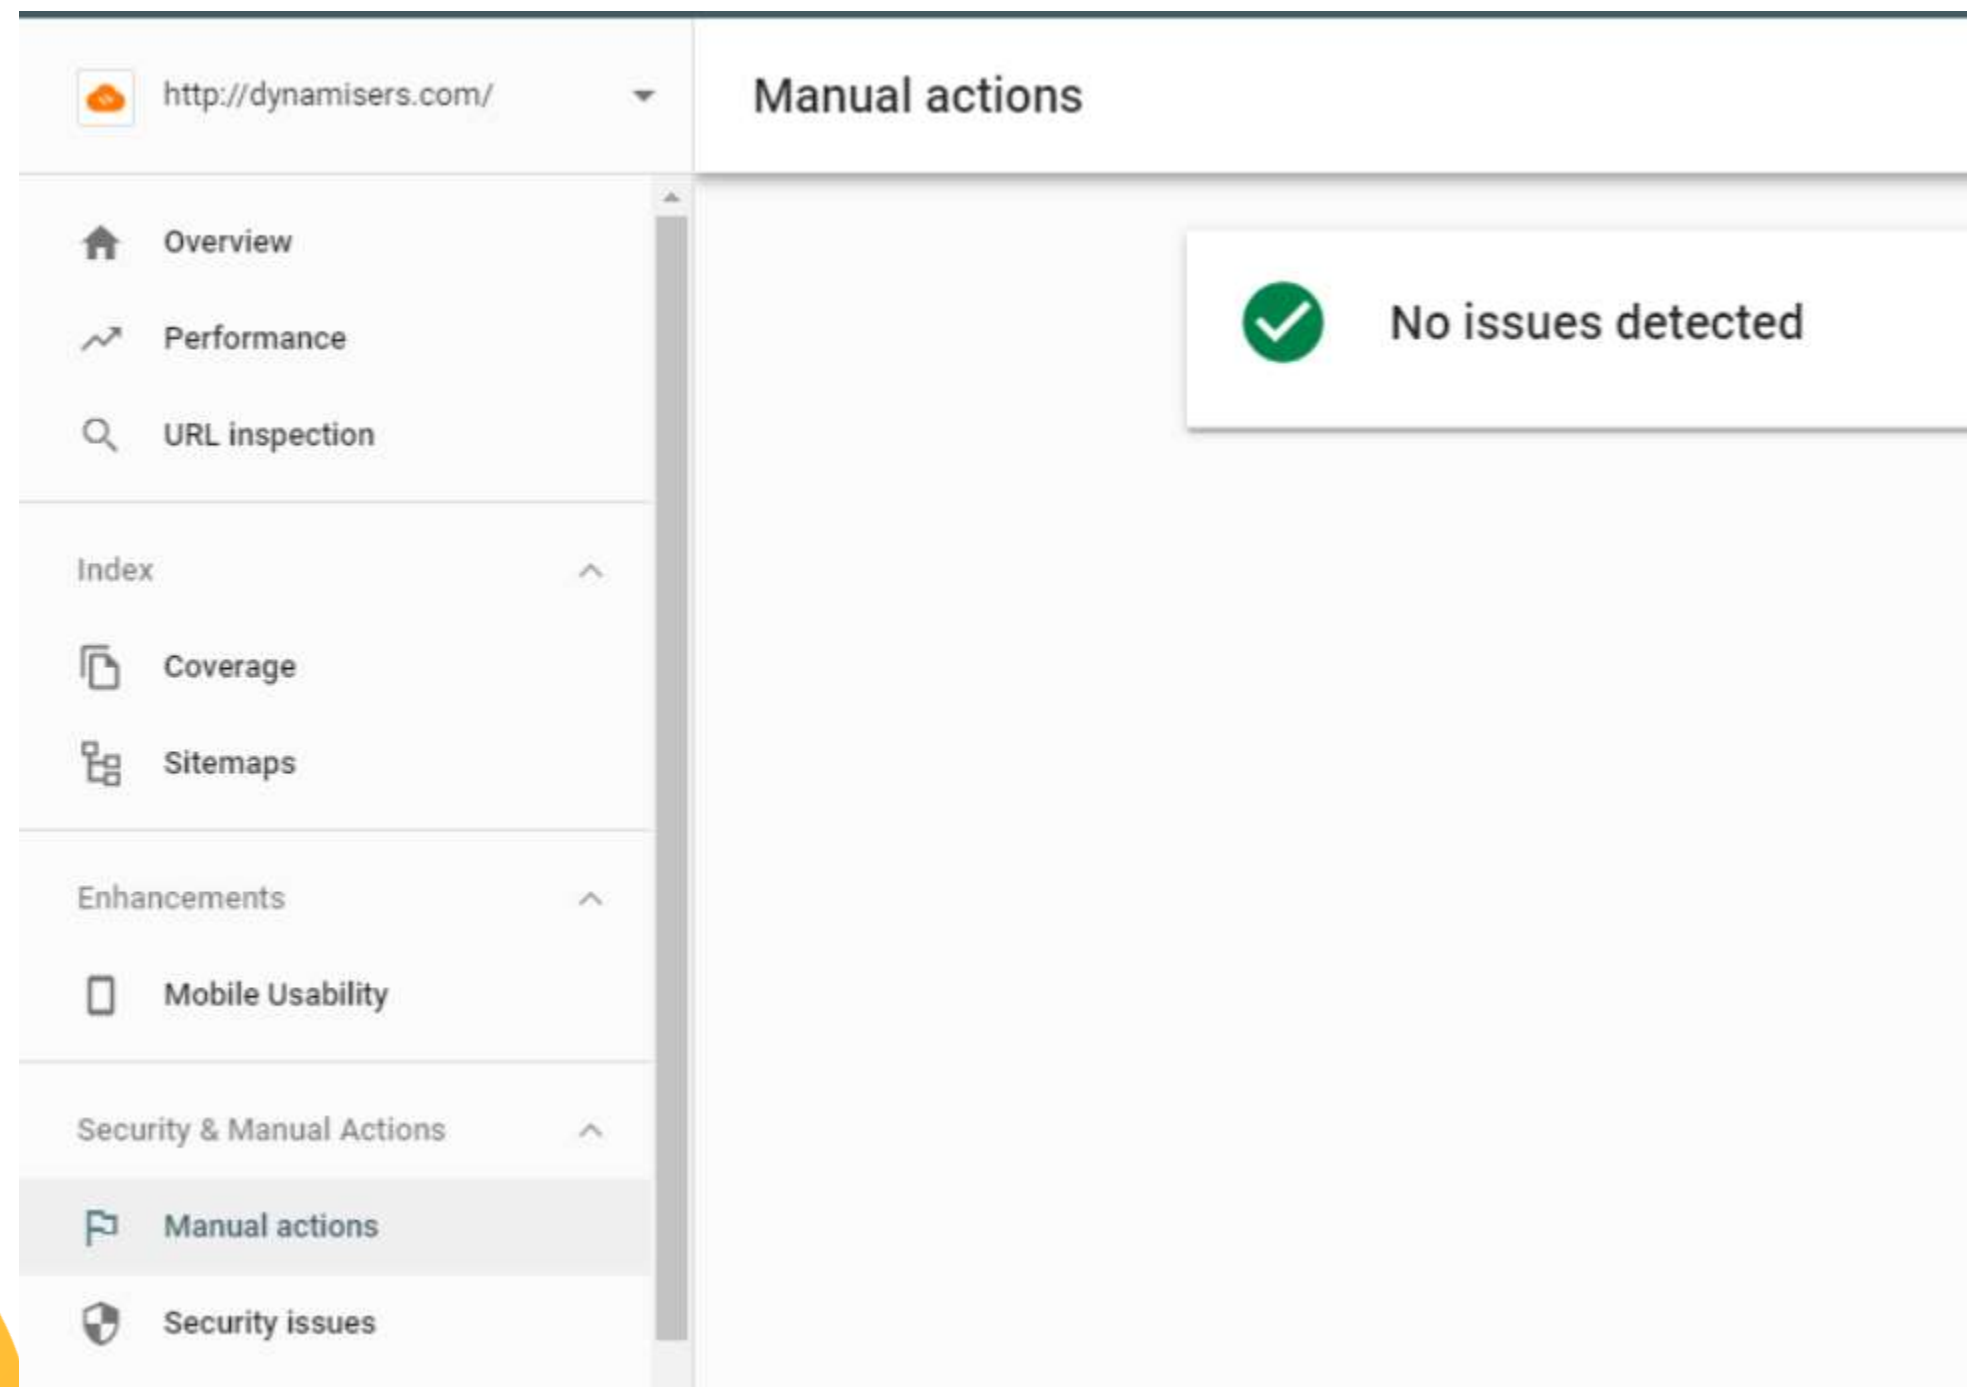

The screenshot shows the Google Search Console interface for the website `http://dynamisers.com/`. The left sidebar contains navigation links: Overview, Performance (selected), URL inspection, Index, Coverage, Sitemaps, Enhancements, Mobile Usability, and Security & Manual Actions. The main content area is titled 'Performance' and includes filters for 'Search type: Web' and 'Date: Last 3 months', along with a '+ NEW' button. A 'Last updated: 7/15/19' timestamp is in the top right. The data is presented in a table with columns: QUERIES, PAGES, COUNTRIES, DEVICES, and SEARCH APPEARANCE. The 'SEARCH APPEARANCE' column is further divided into 'Clicks' and 'Impressions'. The table lists four search queries with their corresponding click and impression counts.

QUERIES	PAGES	COUNTRIES	DEVICES	SEARCH APPEARANCE
				Clicks	Impressions
social media workshop				3	243
workshop social media				1	153
seo workshop				0	1,359
social media marketing workshop				0	771

Who should use Search Console?

Anyone with a website! From generalist to specialist, from newbie to advanced, Search Console can help you.

Business owners:

Even if you won't be using Search Console yourself, you should be aware of it, become familiar with the basics of optimizing your site for search engines, and know what features are available in Google Search.

SEO specialists/marketers:

As someone focused on online marketing, Search Console will help you monitor your website traffic, optimize your ranking, and make informed decisions about the appearance of your site's search results. You can use the information in Search Console to influence technical decisions for the website and do sophisticated marketing analysis in conjunction with other Google tools like Analytics, Google Trends, and Google Ads.

Site administrators:

As a site admin, you care about the healthy operation of your site. Search Console lets you easily monitor and in some cases resolve server errors, site load issues, and security issues like hacking and malware. You can also use it to ensure any site maintenance or adjustments you make happen smoothly with respect to search performance.

Web developers:

If you are creating the actual markup and/or code for your site, Search Console helps you monitor and resolve common issues with markup, such as errors in structured data.

The slide features a white background with two large, abstract, light blue shapes in the corners. One shape is in the top right corner, and the other is in the bottom left corner. They appear to be stylized, organic forms.
